Data Protection Act

The Act obliges us to ensure compliance concerning how we hold and process personal information. Such information must be treated in the strictest confidence and should only be used for purposes notified to the Registrar.

The Data We Hold

The uses of your personal information are covered by our notification. Third parties may introduce your business to us and we may introduce your business to third parties eg Independent Financial Advisers and solicitors. They will be under the same duty of confidentiality. We will endeavor to ensure the personal information we hold about you is accurate. If you have any questions or if you want a copy of the information we hold about you, please write to us enclosing a cheque for £10.

Using Your Personal Information

We will use your details to:

1. Provide the service or product you applied for,
2. Help us understand your needs
3. To help us understand business trends
4. To improve the products and services we offer, and
5. Enable selected third parties to offer you a service or product that we think may benefit you.

We may contact you by mail, telephone, fax, e-mail or in person. You will not be obligated to purchase anything offered. We try to protect you from entering into an agreement not in your best interest. If you prefer not to receive information, please inform us.

Using Your Personal Information – Those Applying To Rent Property

In considering your application to rent property we will arrange a search of your records at a:

1. Credit Reference Agency. It will add details of our search and your application to your record, which may be seen by others making searches.
2. Fraud Prevention Agency. If you give false or inaccurate information or fraud is suspected, this may be recorded.

Businesses Applying To Rent Property

The Act does not apply to companies but it does extend to sole traders and partners. When an application from a business is received, information may be sought from credit reference agencies on the company directors and/or partners as individuals.
